

To Command Success Look Prosperous.

You have noticed many a man with that prosperous and self-satisfied air and have thought to yourself, "There is a man who is successful, otherwise he could not afford that gem glistening in his shirt front, and that beautiful solitaire on his finger."

This impresses everyone as it does you, and you can have the same appearance with a lesser investment than you imagine.

We would suggest that you call and allow us to show you our beautiful assortment of diamonds, and by quoting you a few prices you will readily see that you can also afford to look prosperous.

Do not forget that a diamond must be bought from a reliable concern, and one that you have the utmost confidence in.
